Members of National Assembly Attendance

22nd Session

Parliamentary Year 2
Nov 27 - Dec 10, 2025

During the 22nd session of the National Assembly, which spanned seven sittings from November 27 to December 10, 2025, only 34 members (10 percent) attended all sittings, while 50 members (15 percent) were absent for the entire session, according to the official attendance records uploaded on the Assembly website. Figure 1 offers a gender-disaggregated breakdown of lawmakers based on the number of sittings that they attended.

National Assembly Attendance, Disaggregated by Gender and No. of Sittings Attended by Each MNA

One member took the oath during the fifth sitting and was present in all subsequent sittings. Although he attended only three sittings in total—which places him in the 'all sittings' category in the subsequent analysis—the actual count in Figure 1 reflects the numerical range of sittings attended (0–7). Therefore, he appears under the 'three sittings' category in the figure 1.

Key Highlights

- The sixth sitting had the highest number of MNAs (201 or 61 percent of current membership) present during the session.
- The fifth sitting had the lowest number of MNAs in attendance (116 or 35 percent).
- As many as three sittings including second, fifth and seventh ended without taking up their scheduled agenda due to a lack of quorum.
- As many as 299 out of sitting 333 MNAs skipped at least one sitting during the session.
- Among the cabinet members from the National Assembly, two federal ministers attended all sittings while eight federal ministers did not attend any sitting during the session.
- The Prime Minister did not attend any sitting during the session.

Attendance Patterns by Sitting

Female members proportionately recorded higher attendance than their male counterparts, except during the first sitting, when male attendance was higher.

The sixth sitting had the highest attendance, with 201 members (61 percent of the current membership) present. The sitting witnessed passage of a government bill titled the Capital Development Authority (Amendment) Bill 2025, sponsored by the Federal Ministry of Interior.

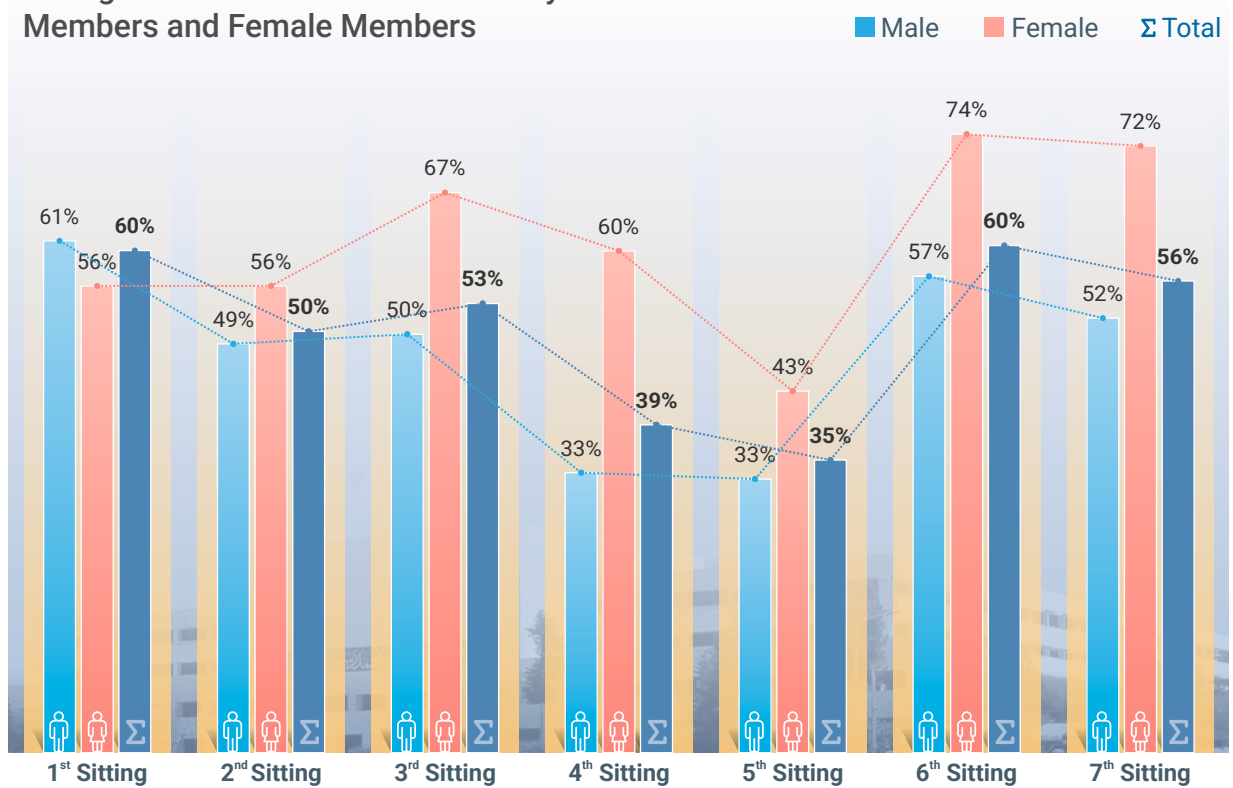

The lowest attendance was recorded during the fifth sitting, with only 116 members (35 percent of the current membership) present. The sitting had to be adjourned due to lack of quorum, which was identified by an independent lawmaker. The proceedings were suspended for 15 minutes after the quorum was found lacking upon the initial counting. The House still lacked quorum upon reconvening, prompting the adjournment.

In addition to fifth, second and seventh sittings also concluded without completing their agenda due to a lack of quorum. Figure 2 presents a gender-wise comparative analysis of the number of sittings attended.

Attendance Patterns by Gender

As many as 44 female MNAs (out of a total of 72) attended more than half of the sittings during 22nd session; of these, 40 were on reserved seats, three on general seats, and one on a reserved seat for minority. Of these 44 MNAs, 17 female MNAs (24 percent)—all on reserved seats—attended all sittings. Eight female MNAs, four on general seats and four on reserved seats, did not attend any sitting. Meanwhile, 20 female MNAs—five elected on general seats and 15 on reserved seats—attended only one to three sittings, including three who attended only one sitting.

Among male MNAs, 131 (50 percent) attended four to seven sittings. Of these, 17 male MNAs elected on general seats attended all the sittings. Forty-two male MNAs on general seats did not attend any sitting. Additionally, 88 male lawmakers (85 elected on general seats and three on minority seats) attended one to three sittings, including 20 who attended only one sitting. Figure 3 presents a gender-wise analysis of the number of sittings attended.

Attendance Patterns of Members on Minority Seats

As many as 10 MNAs elected on minority seats (nine male and one female) attended 22nd session. Among them, three male MNAs attended three sittings. Four MNAs (one female and three male) attended four sittings. Two MNAs attended five sittings, while one MNA attended six out of the seven sittings.

Attendance Patterns by Region

Regionally, majority of MNAs from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, the Islamabad Capital Territory (ICT), and Punjab attended more than half (four to seven) the sittings during 22nd session. Two MNAs from the ICT attended all sittings, and one attended five sittings. Meanwhile, 38 MNAs from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (70 percent) attended four to seven sittings, including seven who attended every sitting. Similarly, more than half of Punjab's MNAs—91 members (53 percent)—attended four to seven sittings, including 18 who were present in all the sittings.

From Balochistan, nine MNAs (45 percent) attended between more than half of the sittings while as many attended up to three sittings. From Sindh, 34 MNAs (42 percent) attended four to seven sittings, including four who attended every sitting. However, 15 MNAs from Sindh, 31 from Punjab, and two each from Balochistan and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa did not attend any sitting. Figure 4 presents a region-wise analysis of the number of sittings attended by members.

Attendance Patterns by Party

Most legislators from the Jamiat Ulama-e-Islam Pakistan (JUIP) and the Pakistan Muslim League–Nawaz (PML-N) attended more than half of the sittings. The sole lawmaker from the Majlis-e-Wahdat-ul-Muslimeen Pakistan (MWMP) attended six sittings, while the single members of the Sunni Ittehad Council (SIC) and the Pashtoonkhwa Milli Awami Party (PKMAP) attended four sittings each. The sole member of the Balochistan Awami Party (BAP) attended three sittings. The sole representatives of the National Party (NP) and the Pakistan Muslim League-Zia (PML-Z) attended two sittings each. Figure 5 presents a party-wise analysis of the number of sittings attended by members.

Comparison of the Number of Sittings Attended by Political Parties

The bar titled “Others” represents all political parties with fewer than eight MNAs, including the SIC, BAP, MWMP, NP, PKMAP, PML, PML-Z, and the IPP. BNP’s sole lawmaker has announced his resignation; however, it has not yet been formally accepted, as the National Assembly’s website continues to list him as a sitting member. Additionally, the Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) declared all members of the Sunni Ittehad Council (SIC)—who are Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf-backed—as independent candidates. Consequently, the number of independent MNAs has increased. Of these independents, four align with the government benches, while seventy-five sit on the opposition side.

Ministerial Attendance

During the session, 14 federal ministries headed by 10 MNAs and four senators as Federal Ministers—were scheduled to respond to members' queries during the Question Hour. However, 10 of them were not present to answer questions related to their respective ministries. Two ministers attended as required, while the ministers for Information and Broadcasting and Defence Production had their questions listed across two sittings but were present for only one. The Federal Ministers for Parliamentary Affairs and Public Affairs attended all sittings.

Ministerial absence weakens parliamentary accountability, as members are unable to question ministers on policies and performance. This diminishes Parliament's ability to hold the executive accountable. Since Question Hour is the main forum for ministerial scrutiny, regular ministerial attendance is essential for effective oversight and the integrity of parliamentary proceedings.

Figures 6 and 7 show the number of sittings attended by each cabinet member from the Lower House based on the official records available on the National Assembly website.

The incumbent cabinet comprises 55 members, including the Prime Minister and 31 Federal Ministers (25 MNAs and six Senators). In addition, there are 11 Ministers of State, four Advisors, and nine Special Assistants to the Prime Minister. Furthermore, 24 Parliamentary Secretaries assist the federal ministers in their parliamentary duties, but they do not hold the status of cabinet members.

■ Leave and Absence Patterns

This section presents an analysis of leave requests from the preceding 21st session. The details on leave requests read during the reporting (22nd) session were not available on the National Assembly website at the time when this report was prepared. Their analysis will be covered along with the attendance report of the upcoming (23rd) session.

An analysis of attendance records and leave applications read out during the 21st session proceedings shows that 204 members (62 percent of the current strength) missed at least one sitting during the preceding session. Of these, only 51 members submitted applications requesting leave from the House for their absence, while 153 did not. However, they are legally allowed to submit leave applications in subsequent sessions.

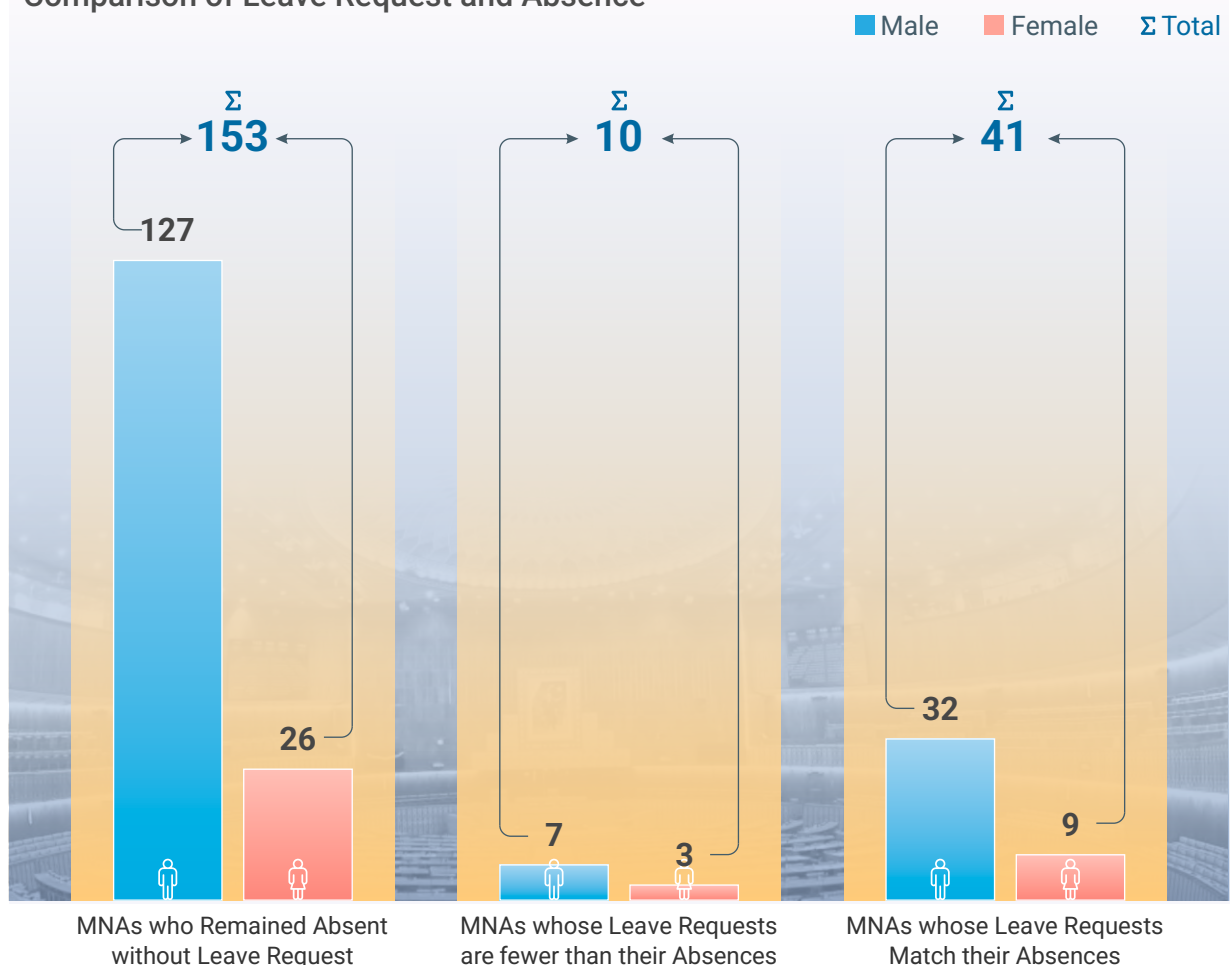

Among these 51 applicants who applied for leave, 15 members (29 percent) applied in advance, while 24 members (47 percent) submitted applications ex post facto, that is, after returning from their leave. The leave applications of the remaining 12 members (24 percent) did not clearly fall into either the advance or ex post facto categories, as these applications were read out during the members' leave period.

Furthermore, 41 members sought leave for the entire duration of their absence, whereas 10 members were absent for longer than the number of days for which they had requested leave. Additionally, one MNA applied for leave during 21st session for absence in the previous sessions. Figure 8 presents a gender-wise comparative analysis of the leave requests and absences.

The Attendance Report Card of the Members of the National Assembly of Pakistan is an initiative by the Free and Fair Election Network (FAFEN) aimed at promoting transparency and accountability by making the performance of elected representatives accessible to the public. Their attendance serves as a key indicator of their commitment to legislative responsibilities, including representing their constituents, contributing to policy debates, and holding the government accountable.

This report presents a detailed analysis of MNAs' attendance during the plenary sittings of the National Assembly's 22nd session, held from November 27 to December 10, 2025. It provides insights into attendance trends across regions, political parties, and gender, highlighting levels of engagement among lawmakers. The report relies on the verbatim debates for leave records of MNA.

Since 2010, FAFEN has been systematically observing and reporting on the plenary proceedings of the federal Parliament and Provincial Assemblies. These efforts have significantly contributed to enhancing parliamentary transparency and strengthening the connection between citizens and their elected representatives, fostering a more inclusive and accountable democratic process.
