About the Report

The Report on the Attendance of the Members of the National Assembly of Pakistan is an initiative by the Free and Fair Election Network (FAFEN) aimed at promoting transparency and accountability by making the performance of elected representatives accessible to the public. Their attendance serves as a key indicator of their commitment to legislative responsibilities, including representing their constituents, contributing to policy debates, and holding the government accountable.

This report presents a detailed analysis of MNAs' attendance during the plenary sittings of the National Assembly's 25th session. It provides insights into attendance trends across regions, political parties, and gender and covers the attendance of private lawmakers, cabinet ministers, and parliamentary leadership. The report relies on the official attendance and leave records of MNAs made available on the website of the National Assembly.

Since 2008, FAFEN has been systematically observing and reporting on the plenary proceedings of the National Assembly. These efforts have significantly contributed to enhancing parliamentary transparency and strengthening the connection between citizens and their elected representatives, fostering a more inclusive and accountable democratic process.

02 — SESSION TIMELINE

Attendance Patterns by Sitting

The MNAs attendance varied across seven sittings with female lawmakers consistently recording higher proportionate attendance than their male colleagues.

1st Sitting: The Private Members’ Day was suspended through the use of Motion under Rule 288 to take up the government agenda. During this time, the House passed the Virtual Assets Bill, 2026 and, for the remaining duration, discussed the Israeli aggression against Iran and the resulting conflict.

4th Sitting: An independent lawmaker pointed out a lack of quorum. The Chair initially suspended the proceedings of the House for 30 minutes and later adjourned the sitting. As a result, none of the agenda items were taken up.

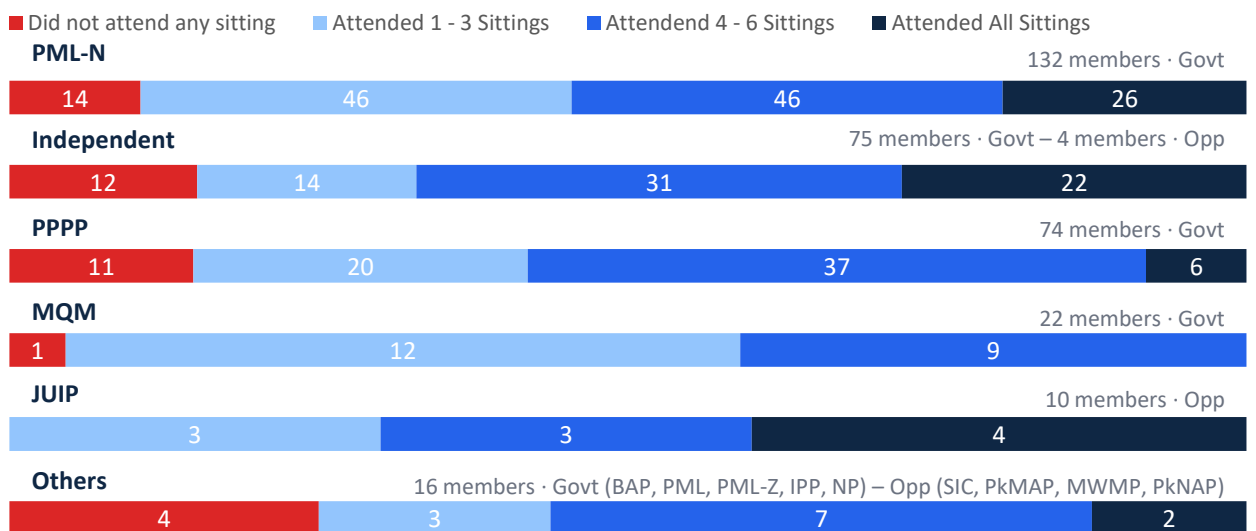

03 — PARTY & REGIONAL PATTERNS

Attendance Patterns by Party

The National Assembly has 13 parliamentary parties and 79 independents. Eight parties and four independents sit on government benches while five parties and 75 independents on opposition benches.
